Mr. Roy Anderson was called to Newberry yesterday to the bedside of his brother, Mr. Paul Anderson, who is quite sick. Mr. H. A. Anderson returned from Newberry yesterday where he visited his brother.—Greenwood Journal.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT

This is the season for school closings.

Newberry is dry all right—speaking of the weather.

Irish jokes are sometimes a little rough.

The banks will all be closed Memorial Day May 10th.

See Helen Gibson in "A Race for Life" at the Opera House today.

Be sure to see John Junior in "A Man's Work," at the Opera House today.

There will be a practical demonstration of rope making at the Newberry Hardware store on Saturday.

The grain crop is going to be very short if there is not some rain in the next few days.

Talk about an eye opener, but if you want to see a mouth opener, it's a school picnic.

The Calvin Crozier chapter will meet with Miss Sara Houseal Saturday afternoon, May 6th at 4:30.

Clarence Wallace, the lord high mayor of Jalapa, now rides about the streets of his city in a Ford.

The Herald and News is prepared now to handle all your good news promptly. Send it along and we will show you.

Big cities on the Newberry Hotel register Wednesday were Harrisburg, Atlanta, Boston, Whitmire and New York.

The Woman's Missionary society of Central Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the church.

The editor thanks Prof. B. M. Setzler for an invitation to the closing exercises of the Pomaria school and if nothing prevents we will be there.

The office of county treasurer must be the capital prize on the political punch board as a lot of fellows are punching at it.

Mr. L. I. Feagle who has been in a hospital in Columbia for some time had a second operation on Monday and was not doing so well on Wednesday.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will meet at the parsonage Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Newberry camp, No. 542, Woodmen of the World, will meet Monday night, May 8, to organize the uniform rank. Every member is urged to be present at 8 o'clock.

There is talk of the two railroads getting together and building a nice steel bridge over the roads on Boundary street. That is what they should do. That old wooden structure has disgraced the place long enough.

Mr. Paul Anderson who has been quite ill for the past several days was taken to the hospital in Columbia on Tuesday night. His many friends in Newberry hope that he will soon be well again.

And then the roads might agree to build that viaduct just above Main street and open Harrington street under the tracks so that the traveler from West End could come to town on that side and avoid a grade crossing.

Summers garage has sold cars as follows during the week: G. E. Bowers Little Mountain Maxwell touring car; John M. Kinard Newberry Maxwell touring car; B. P. Hawkins Prosperity Oakland Six; P. N. Boozer Vaughnville Oakland Six.

In speaking of the appointment of Mr. J. H. Hunt as a member of the board of conciliation the Piedmont says: "He is in every way worthy of being chosen to serve with Messrs. Law and Davis in carrying on the great work that South Carolina has entrusted to the board of arbitration and conciliation." And he is.

The picnic and speaking at Jolly Street today will draw a large crowd. There are those who are going from Chappells and other places from afar.

Gov. Bleas and Mr. Fred H. Dominick will speak. The exercises by the children of the school have been called off, but the picnic dinner will be served.

The Luther League of St. Phillips Lutheran church will hold a meeting at the church next Sunday beginning at 10 o'clock. An address will be delivered by Dr. G. J. B. Cromer.

Mrs. Duckworth will speak either in the morning or afternoon. There will be other speakers and dinner will be served on the grounds. The public is invited.

The Girl and the Game, which has been running at the Arcade during the past 15 weeks, came to a close Wednesday night. It was a thriller from start to finish. The only shortcoming about the story was the death of the villain Seagrue without Helen's finding out his perfidy.

The play attracted wide spread attention and interest, one little baby girl at the Oakland mill village being named for the heroine of the story, Helen Holmes. A pretty name all right.

Lonnie Reese, the barber who has been in Harvey Reese's shop for several years and who is a nephew of Harvey, died suddenly on Tuesday morning. Lonnie was a good barber and best of all he was always polite and courteous and pleasant. He had been in bad health for the past year. His body was taken to Charleston for burial. We regret his death and shall miss him.

The Chautauqua closed last night and it is no exaggeration nor an attempt to boost when we say that from the viewpoint of interest and attendance it surpassed the most sanguine expectations. The large tent with a seating capacity of 1300 was crowded at every performance. It is a safe estimate that during the seven days entertainment there were at least 15,000 admissions.

Mr. Bill Smith and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith of Kinards, accompanied by Dr. T. H. Pope went to Charleston on Tuesday for consultation with Dr. Robert Wilson. Mr. J. W. Smith has not been well for some time and he desired to have Dr. Wilson examine him.

There is no finer gentleman or better physician in South Carolina than Dr. Robert Wilson.

A weather prophet in Newberry says he does not expect any rain before the end of the present dry spell.

It is the custom in the north and west and perhaps in large cities of the south, for an audience to rise to its feet when a band plays "The Star Spangled Banner." The Newberry Chautauqua audience knew this but the larger portion forgot it when the White Hussars struck up the national hymn the other night.

What's the reporter to do for news when the undertakers tell him that nobody is dead, the preachers tell him they have performed no marriage ceremonies, the sheriff has made no arrests, the magistrate court reports nothing doing, the coroner has nothing else to hold an inquest over but a swatted fly, the garages have made no auto sales, the fire department has no calls since the fire insurance companies left the State, and even the weather bureau seems to have turned against us for it won't send any rain for us to comment upon.

BAYNES, THE BIRD MAN

ORGANIZES BIRD CLUB

Ernest Harold Baynes, noted bird man of America, who lectured at the Chautauqua and presented the beautiful bird masque, organized a bird club for Newberry. Mr. John M. Kinard was elected president, Mr. Julius Boozer, vice president, and Mr. F. N. Martin secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Baynes met with the officers of the club and the teachers of Boundary street school and talked with them of the best plans for furthering the interest already begun by the Audubon society at the Boundary street school in the study, care and preservation of our useful birds.

The bird masque was very beautiful and developed in an impressive way the necessity for the cooperation of all in the conservation of birds. The following pupils of the schools took part in the masque:

Gold Finch—Boyd Wheeler, Lula Mae Fellers, Rosa Turpin Tarrant, Olive Burns, Gladys Williams, Edith Dorrity.

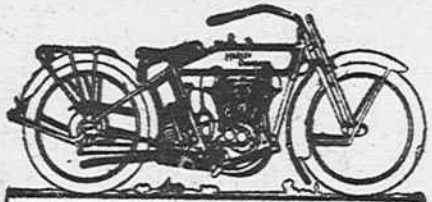

Black Birds—Margaret Kinard, Maud Hamilton, Claire Sligh, Bettie Harms, Claudia Wheeler, Troxelle Wright.

Grosbeak—Irene Hamilton, Azile Whitaker, Caroline Weeks, Ben Etta Buzhardt, Dorothy Denning, Elizabeth White.
